

Timothy Ray Whitman

November 16, 1956 - February 21, 2026

Timothy Ray Whitman, 69, of New Haven, passed away unexpectedly, Saturday, February 21, 2026, at his home. Born in Fort Wayne, Indiana, he was the son of the late Ernest and Thelma (Haley) Whitman. He retired in 2024 from Caterpillar Lafayette Engine Center, W. Lafayette, Indiana. He was a jack of all trades. He was a truck driver, heavy equipment operator, factory worker, and heating and air conditioner worker. He loved football, baseball and hockey. His favorite teams were the Chicago Bears, Chicago Blackhawks, and the New York Yankees. He also enjoyed classic cars, especially Mopar. He is survived by his daughter, Jenny Petitjean of Michigan; siblings, Debbie Cook of New Haven, Indiana, Patty (Jim) Kennedy of Oldsmar, Florida, Roger (Karry) Whitman of New Haven, Indiana, and Brian (Kim) Whitman of Fort Wayne, Indiana; grandchildren, Meagan Petitjean and Conner Petitjean, both of Michigan.

A celebration of life service will be announced later date. Preferred memorials to Donor's Choice.
